About SEGRA

SEGRA is recognised as Australia's most credible independent voice on issues affecting regional Australia. The SEGRA conference is your opportunity to take an active role in advancing regional, rural and remote Australia. SEGRA, now in its 23rd year, is committed to enabling regional, rural and remote Australia to source and identify the knowledge, practices and skills regions require to achieve successful economic growth and development.

SEGRA is pleased to partner with the Journal of Rural Society to produce a special edition of SEGRA contributions. There is the opportunity for blind peer review of these papers if requested. Contact kate@segra.com.au for more information.

The deadline for the submission of offered papers is 5:00pm (AEST) on Friday, 29 March 2019

Guidelines for offering a paper

SEGRA is predominantly attended by practitioners, regional economic development organisations, local councils, businesses, not for profit and state and federal government who live, work and invest in regional rural and remote Australia. A review of the papers from previous years will assist in pitching your paper.

Submitted papers must address the following

- an alignment with the conference theme;
- in the presentation of case studies, an outline of the key learnings and outcomes of the project or program; and
- applied learning experiences of the project and their relevance to ecotourism and responsible tourism.

Barooga, New South Wales

Situated in the centre of ‘the food bowl of Australia’, the Cobram Barooga district area is renowned for its magnificent climate and variety of available attractions and activities.

The Cobram Barooga area is home to some of the most picturesque sections of Australia’s mightiest river, the Murray. Visitors are captivated by the lifestyle, with wide sandy beaches, towering gums and native bushland blending together to form a unique holiday destination.

The natural environment invites unparalleled wildlife tourism that covers the Murray River’s best sandy beaches, towering 500-year old Redgums, native bushland, abundant bird life and Australia’s unique wildlife in their natural habitats.

*It is a great conference, a great mix of delegates. SEGRA is a great forum to drive policy, programs and projects in rural, remote and regional Australia and not bogged down in political issues – SEGRA Delegate

*The conference was one of the best I have ever been to. Excellent speakers, highly relevant material and a great networking opportunity – SEGRA Delegate

*Wonderful experience – I really enjoyed it – especially suitable for professionals who want to bring about improvements and change and have limited access to think tanks and ideas exchange opportunities – SEGRA Delegate
